AARON ROUSSELL

HEAD COACH • SEVENTH SEASON AT BUCKNELL • IOWA '01

The turnaround during Aaron Roussell's time with the Bucknell women's basketball program has been nothing short of remarkable. Since taking over a team that went 5-25 the season before his arrival to Lewisburg, Roussell has guided the Bison to the most successful stretch in program history, capped by three straight national postseason appearances.

Highlighting Roussell's six-year run with the Bison is the 2017 Patriot League title and the team's first appearance in the NCAA Tournament since 2008. Sandwiched around that spectacular season were two appearances in the WNIT (2016 and 2018), including the Patriot League's first ever WNIT win when the Bison beat Akron in the opening round of the 2016 tournament. Bucknell went 74-24 overall during those three seasons. All three came to an end with a loss to a team from a Power Five conference (Michigan, Maryland, West Virginia).

Roussell, who will enter the 2018-19 season with a career record of 284-116 and a Bucknell record of 123-66, has won two Patriot League Coach of the Year honors. The most recent (2017) was the most successful season in school history as the team posted a 27-6 record, won a Patriot League regular season title, won a Patriot League Tournament title, and had a matchup with No. 3 seed and third-ranked nationally Maryland as the No. 14 seed in the NCAA Tournament.

Under Roussell's direction, Bucknell has won four major conference awards, with Claire DeBoer being the most recent. She was voted as the unanimous 2017 Patriot League Player of the Year and went on to be named the Patriot League Tournament MVP after recording a double-double of 30 points and 10 rebounds in an overtime win over Navy in the championship game. In all, eight players have combined for 13 All-Patriot League honors during Roussell's six seasons. Additionally, the team has had six Academic All-Patriot League citations, three Patriot League Rookie of the Year awards, six All-Rookie honorees, and one PL All-Defensive player.

The 2016-17 season was an encore to a 2015-16 season that saw Bucknell go 25-8 overall and share the Patriot League regular season title with a 17-1 record. The Bison went on to register the first WNIT win in league history with a 74-71 victory at Akron in the first round. They made a return trip to the WNIT in 2018, finishing off a 22-10 season with a loss to West Virginia in the opening round.

Bucknell has been the best team in league play over the past three seasons and it's not even close. The Bison are 48-6 in the conference during that stretch, while Army West Point has the next best record at 38-16. Every team in the conference has had at least nine league losses in a single season at some point over the past three years.

The turnaround was immediate for Bucknell under Roussell. He lifted the Bison from a five-win outing in 2011-12 to a 15-16 overall record and a 5-9 mark in Patriot League action during his debut season. His 15 wins set a Bucknell women's basketball record for victories in a coach's rookie season, and his work with the Bison was recognized nationally, as he was named a Bucknell's ascent continued in Roussell's second season at the helm, as the Bison finished 16-14 overall, 11-7 in the Patriot League and 10-4 at Sojka Pavilion. Bucknell earned the No. 4 seed for the Patriot League Tournament and hosted a quarterfinal game in Sojka for the first time. The Bison then went on to accept a bid to the Women's Basketball Invitational postseason tournament for the first time.

Bucknell's improvement mirrored that of the conference as a whole in 2014-15, but the Bison were again able to finish in the top half of the league standings and grabbed the No. 4 seed for the conference tournament for the second consecutive year. The team finished 18-12, the program's highest win total in eight years, and was above .500 at 10-8 in one of the most competitive seasons from top to bottom in league history.

Much of the Bison's success during Roussell's tenure has been a result of his ability to quickly develop talent and meld it with the team's veteran players. They won three straight Patriot League Rookie of the Year awards, with DeBoer receiving the honor in 2014, Jacquie Klotz in 2015 and Kaitlyn Slagus in 2016.

DeBoer developed into the best all-around player in the Patriot League. At the conclusion of her career, she ranked third in program history in points, third in rebounds, and ninth in assists. She is the only player to currently rank in the top 10 in all three categories and is the only player with at least 1,600 points and 800 rebounds.

Prior to his time in Lewisburg, Roussell spent eight years as the head coach at the University of Chicago, where he compiled a 161-50 (.763) record, including a 52-5 mark with a 43-game regular-season winning streak over his last two seasons with the program. Roussell logged the most victories and highest winning percentage of any women's basketball coach in Chicago's 41-year history, while guiding the Maroons to their only three University Athletic Association outright championships. Two of those came in his final two years in Chicago, both on perfect 14-0 league records. Roussell's teams also made four NCAA Division III Tournament appearances during his tenure, advancing to the Elite Eight once and to the Sweet Sixteen on three occasions.

In addition to their success on the hardwood, Roussell's teams at the University of Chicago, one of the most prestigious academic institutions in the nation, also excelled in the classroom. His 2010-11 team combined for a 3.36 grade-point average and, at the culmination of the 2011-12 season, Taylor Simpson was awarded the Jostens Trophy, given to the most outstanding Division III women's basketball student-athlete and determined by basketball ability, academic success and community service.

Prior to Roussell's arrival at Chicago in September of 2004, the Maroons had never appeared in the national rankings, but they were listed in the ESPN/WBCA and D3hoops.com top-25 polls in each of the last seven years under his tutelage. The program was ranked No. 1 in the nation in the ESPN/WBCA Coaches' Poll in 2006-07, and in 2011-12, his last season with the program, the team was ranked No. 2 for most of the campaign. Roussell was named the UAA Coach of the Year in 2008, 2011 and 2012, and he was selected as the WBCA Regional Coach of the Year in 2011 and 2012.

Roussell coached six of the 10 1,000-point scorers in program history while at Chicago, mentored 15 different all-conference performers in eight seasons and had players earn All-America honors in 2005, 2011 and 2012. His teams posted a higher victory total than the previous season in seven of his eight years at the helm of the program.

In addition to his coaching duties, Roussell was an assistant professor at Chicago and taught four credits of activities classes per year. He was also a member of the athletic department's promotions team and personnel committee, and he served on the university's Community Service and Student Leadership awards committees.

A 2001 graduate of the University of Iowa, Roussell double-majored in journalism/mass communications and political science. In 2002 he began a two-year stint as a graduate assistant women's basketball coach at Minnesota State, completing a master's degree in sports administration while honing his coaching skills.

His first coaching experience came at the high school level, as he served as the boys' varsity assistant coach and head JV coach at Breck High School in Minneapolis, Minn. for the 2001-02 season.

Roussell and his wife, Molly, have an eight-year-old son, Riley, a four-year old daughter, Kelsey, and a one-year old daughter, Kendall.

JEANINE RADICE

ASST. COACH/RECRUITING COORD. • SECOND SEASON AT BUCKNELL • FORDHAM '89

Jeanine Radice is set for her second season as an assistant coach on the Bucknell women's basketball staff, continuing her work with the guards and as the team's recruiting coordinator. She has 28 years of experience at the Division I level, including six appearances in the NCAA Tournament and eight in the WNIT.

The most recent WNIT appearance of Radice's career came last year in her first season as a Bucknell assistant coach. She helped guide the Bison to a 22-10 overall record, 15-3 mark in the Patriot League, and a spot in the WNIT, where they took on West Virginia in the opening round.

The Bison had three players earn All-Patriot League honors following the 2017-18 season, including a pair of guards. Junior Kate Walker was a First Team selection, while junior Kyi English earned a spot on the Third Team. Additionally, freshman guard Abby Kapp made the Patriot League All-Rookie Team.

Before Bucknell, Radice spent 21 seasons as an assistant coach at Delaware, helping the Blue Hens accumulate 408 wins, a .632 winning percentage, four NCAA Tournament berths, and seven appearances in the WNIT. During a two-season stretch from 2011-13, Delaware went undefeated in the Colonial Athletic Association and posted an overall record of 63-6. Both seasons culminated with appearances in the NCAA Tournament.

The 2012-13 season was one of the greatest in the history of Delaware women's basketball. The team set a program record for wins in a season, going 32-4 on its way to a No. 6 seed in the NCAA Tournament. The Blue Hens opened with a 66-53 win over No. 11 West Virginia and followed that with a 78-69 upset win over No. 3 North Carolina to advance to the Sweet 16 for the first time in program history.

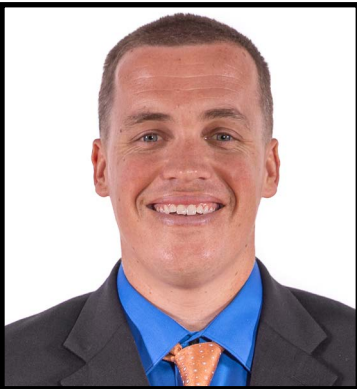

The memorable 2012-13 season came just one year after Delaware went 31-2. The Blue Hens made school history at the end of that season with a 73-42 win over Arkansas Little Rock in the opening round of the NCAA Tournament. It was the first ever postseason win by a women's basketball or men's basketball team at Delaware.

Prior to Delaware, Radice was an assistant coach at Seton Hall for two seasons. She helped guide the Pirates to back-to-back NCAA Tournament berths in 1994 and 1995. Radice also spent two seasons as an assistant coach at Marist.

Radice earned a Bachelor's degree in psychology from Fordham in 1989 and went on to earn a Master's degree in education at her alma mater in 1990.

A two-sport star in women's basketball and cross country for the Rams, Radice was inducted into the Fordham Athletics Hall of Fame in 1995. She was the 1989 MAAC Women's Basketball Player of the Year and the 1985 Rookie of the Year. A three-time First Team All-MAAC selection, Radice ranks second in program history in scoring with 2,417 career points and is the record holder in scoring average (21.8), 3-point field goal percentage (.475), and free throw percentage (.851).

Radice is a native of Staten Island, N.Y.

DARREN GUENSCH

ASSISTANT COACH • FIRST SEASON AT BUCKNELL • RADFORD '05

Darren Guensch is set for his first season as an assistant coach on the Bison women's basketball staff in 2018-19. He brings eight years of Division I coaching experience, including the past two seasons at East Carolina, in addition to four seasons in the role of director of basketball operations.

Guensch spent the past two seasons as an assistant coach/recruiting coordinator at East Carolina, where he helped the Pirates to the largest turnaround in the American Athletic Conference with a five-win improvement in league play from the 2016-17 season to the 2017-18 season. The 2017 recruiting class played a large part in that turnaround, accounting for 67 percent of the team's points and 54 percent of its rebounds.

Prior to his time at East Carolina, Guensch spent six seasons as an assistant coach at three different Division I schools – College of Charleston (2014-16), UNCG (2012-14), and VCU (2010-12). He also held the title of recruiting coordinator at both College of Charleston and UNCG.

Guensch mentored multiple players to major conference awards while at College of Charleston and UNCG.

Breanna Bolden was a two-time Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) Defensive Player of the Year and two-time All-CAA player for the Cougars, while Lucy Mason was the Southern Conference Freshman of the Year while Guensch was on staff and later went on to become the first CoSIDA Academic All-American in program history.

Guensch began his collegiate coaching career at VCU, where he spent the first two seasons as the director of basketball operations before being promoted to the coaching staff. The Rams went 86-47 during his four seasons with the team and qualified for four national postseason tournaments. They made their first ever NCAA Tournament in 2009 and followed that with three straight appearances in the WNIT. The Rams advanced to the WNIT Third Round in 2010 and 2012.

At VCU, Guensch was responsible for the player development of two CAA All-Rookie Team players and one two-time All-CAA guard.

Prior to his four years at VCU, Guensch served as the director of basketball operations for two seasons at George Mason. Before that he spent one season as an assistant coach for the Loudoun County High School girls basketball team.

Guensch graduated from Radford in 2005 with a bachelor's degree in exercise, sport and health education before earning a master's degree in the same discipline at George Mason in 2012. He married his wife, Devon, in 2007 and the couple welcomed their first child, Miles, in 2011 and their second, Layna, in 2016.

BRITTANY PINKNEY
ASSISTANT COACH • SECOND SEASON AT BUCKNELL • VCU '08

Brittany Pinkney is set to begin her second season as an assistant coach on the Bucknell women's basketball team. Pinkney, who spent the previous four seasons as an assistant at Mount St. Mary's, was the director of operations for the Bison in head coach Aaron Roussell's first season in Lewisburg in 2012-13.

Pinkney works with Bucknell's guards, a position group that had two representatives on the 2017-18 All-Patriot League Teams. Kate Walker showed drastic improvement while earning a spot on the First Team, and Kyi English was a Third Team selection. This came after a season in which the Bison went 22-10 overall, 15-10 in the Patriot League, earned an automatic bid to the WNIT.

During Pinkney's time at Mount St. Mary's, the Mountaineers racked up 48 wins, including 36 in league play. The team had three All-NEC selections during those four seasons, including two that were recruited by Pinkney. Two players reached 1,000 career points.

Pinkney's first season with The Mount resulted in a 19-14 record and the team's first ever appearance in the WNIT. The Mountaineers went 13-5 in the Northeast Conference that season.

Prior to joining Roussell's staff at Bucknell in 2012-13, Pinkney began her coaching career as a graduate assistant at Division III Salisbury. The Seagulls had a six-win improvement in her second season with the team, including a five-win turnaround in league play.

Pinkney was a four-year member of the VCU women's basketball team (2004-08) and served as a team captain her senior season. Following graduation, Pinkney went on to play professionally in the Extraliga League Women's Basketball in Roznava, Slovakia from 2008-10.

Pinkney earned a degree in recreational parks and sport management from VCU in 2008. She added a master's in education at Salisbury in 2012.

RYLAND ADKINS
MANAGER OF OPERATIONS • SECOND SEASON AT BUCKNELL • MARYLAND '16

Ryland Adkins is set to begin her second season as the manager of basketball operations for Bucknell women's basketball.

In her first season with the Bison, the team earned an automatic bid to the WNIT while going 22-10 overall and 15-3 in the Patriot League.

Adkins joined the Bucknell staff after spending one season as the director of basketball operations at Furman. She worked with a Paladins team that finished in a tie for fourth in the Southern Conference.

Prior to Furman, Adkins worked integral roles for a highly successful Maryland team for five seasons, working as a student manager and then an intern for the director of operations following her graduation. During that time, the Terrapins won an ACC title, a Big Ten regular season title, a Big Ten Tournament title, and appeared in the NCAA Final Four twice.

Adkins earned a bachelor's degree in family science from Maryland in 2016. In addition to her work with women's basketball, she has spent time as the assistant director for the Magnolia Elementary Playground

Camp and as an intern teach assistant at St. Jerome Child Center.
