2001 NOTEBOOK

- Bucknell will be aiming for its seventh straight winning season for the first time ever. The Bison enjoyed six straight winning seasons from 1960-65, but have never had seven winning seasons in a row. Under Tom Gadd, Bucknell went 7-4 in 1995, 6-5 in 1996, 10-1 in 1997, 6-5 in 1998, 7-4 in 1999, and 6-5 last season.
- The Orange and Blue return 10 starters on the offensive side of the ball, including all five offensive linemen and All-Patriot League running back Jabu Powell.
- Three starters return on defense, including All-Patriot League nose guard Adam Lord.
- Bucknell was second in the Patriot League in total defense (290.3 ypg), rushing defense (105.5 ypg), and scoring defense (15.6 ppg).
- After sliding to -3 in turnover ratio in 1998, Bucknell returned to the black in '99 at +6, and improved that number to +10 last year. That figure ranked tied for 18th nationally and second in the Patriot League.
- Jabu Powell rushed for 1,102 yards last year, becoming the first Bison back to top the 1,000-yard plateau since the 1997 season. That total ranked as the sixth-best single-season in school history. He ranked second in the league in rushing and first in all-purpose yardage. Powell, who missed two games due to injury, set a league and school record with 282 yards against Cornell on Sept. 16.
- The Bison broke nine individual school records in 2000 and tied another; set three Patriot League individual marks; and set one conference team record.
- Bucknell's defensive unit sacked opposing quarterbacks 33 times last year, ranking third in the Patriot League. Linebacker Joe Massey led the team with nine sacks, the fifth-best single-season total in school history.
- Fullback Jason Marrow, who scored 12 points before being sidelined for the remainder of the year, enters the 2001 season ranked fourth on both Bucknell's all-time scoring chart and all-time touchdown list. He has 180 career points and 30 career touchdowns.
- Place-kicker Chris Lundberg set a school record with 13 field goals in 2000, surpassing the previous mark of 12 set by Al Yuknus in 1981. He scored 62 points -- the second-highest single-season total ever by a Bison kicker.
- A host of players will miss spring practice for various reasons. TE Drew Nadler is still recovering from a foot injury. FB Todd Warmington is recovering from off-season shoulder surgery. FB Matt Kawczenski is recovering from a knee injury. OL Jon Scharf had off-season knee surgery and is recovering. RB Ricco Rosini, FS Bobby Young, WR Ryan Brown and QB Chad Mehle are studying abroad and will not be in attendance.

2001 SCHEDULE

Bison To Open the Season at Division I-A Kent State

Bucknell's first game against a Division I-A opponent in six years and five home games, including the Parents' Weekend game against St. Mary's-CA on September 29 and the Homecoming contest against Georgetown on October 20, highlight the 2001 Bucknell University football schedule. The Bison will open the season at Kent State University on September 8, pitting the Orange and Blue against a Division I-A opponent for the first time since Bucknell played at Army back in 1995.

"We are extremely excited to be able to upgrade our schedule with a Division I-A opponent," stated John Hardt, Bucknell's Director of Athletics & Recreation. "Coach Gadd and I believe that scheduling and competing against a quality Division I-A opponent such as Kent State represents another significant step in building the overall quality and competitiveness of Bucknell's football program."

Gadd, who has led the Bison to six straight winning seasons, is also glad to have Kent State on the schedule, but realizes the challenge before him and the Bison squad. "It will be a real test for our team with the first three games on the road, and all against quality competition. It's a tall order out of the box, but I think our players are excited to be playing Kent."

ENDOWMENT & TURF

In honor of Coach Bob Odell and his contributions to Bucknell and the Bison football program, on October 13 of last fall at the Odell salute dinner Norm and Mary Lou Garrity presented the University with a gift to permanently endow the Head Coaching position of the Bison football program. From this season forward, the Bucknell Head Football Coaching Position will be supported by this fund and named in Coach Bob Odell's honor. Odell led Bucknell to Lambert Cup titles in 1960 and 1964.

In addition, the Garrity's provided the University with an additional gift to install a new generation artificial turf in Christy Mathewson-Memorial Stadium. The new long-blade artificial grass will be a state-of-the-art, all-weather playing surface that features the latest in turf technology. As a result of the Garrity's tremendous support, the University plans to install the new field for the start of the 2001 fall semester.

After Disappointing 6-5 Campaign Last Year, Bison Are Determined to Finish the Job in 2001

It's no secret that in the world of athletics there are some losses that are very difficult to swallow, but when a team begins a season 5-1 and then losses four of its last five games by a combined total of 13 points it's devastating. Such was the story for the 2000 Bucknell Bison football team.

To make matters worse for the Bison last year, in all five of their setbacks they led in the fourth quarter, and in the final three losses the winning points were scored in the final minute.

Head Coach Tom Gadd, entering his seventh season at the helm of the Bucknell program, realizes that his team was close to achieving some tremendous success last season, but that when push came to shove the team didn't make enough plays to put opponents away.

"We were close to getting where we wanted to go last year, and we had the makings of a real good football team, but we didn't make enough plays to finish it off.

In addition, we suffered more than our share of injuries. Sometimes you have to be a little bit lucky in this game, and we had no luck in that department," said Gadd.

Despite the endless list of injuries and the excruciating losses, the Bison logged their sixth straight winning season and the senior class tied the school record for wins over a four-year period with 29.

Bucknell became one of just 33 schools at the Division I-A and I-AA levels (236 schools) that have recorded winning seasons in each of the last six years.

As the start of spring practice nears, Coach Gadd and his staff will concentrate on rebuilding the winning edge the program has come to expect over the last six years. "We think we have a lot of the pieces there, we just need to make them all come together," explained Gadd.

The healthy return from injury of several key players, including FB Jason Marrow, TE Greg Readinger, TB Jabu Powell, OC Bill Jamieson and CB Reed Tunison, will give the Orange and Blue a big boost. Over the course of the 2000 campaign, eight Bison starters missed game action.

Entering the season a year ago several questions remained on the offensive side of the ball. This year, it's the complete opposite. 10 offensive starters will return to the lineup, including two-time All-Patriot League TB Jabu Powell and a very experienced offensive line.

"Our offensive line should be a real strength with everyone returning," said Gadd. "We have a real strong young group under the starters too, and for the first time we will have depth and competition in the offensive line in spring practice. That bodes well."

The only hole in the offense entering spring ball is right behind the center where Lucas Phillips called the signals and passed for over 1,700 yards a year ago. His graduation presents another opportunity for junior Todd Wenrich to step in and take over the reigns.

The defense, which held the opposition to just 15.6 points and 290.3 yards per game last year, lost eight starters, including All-American free safety Kevin Eiben (8 INTs) and first team All-Patriot League linebacker Vince Ficca (102 tackles). Under the direction of defensive coordinator Dave Kotulski, the Bison defense has ranked first or second in the Patriot League in total defense in five of the last six years.

Although the top five and eight of the top 11 tacklers have graduated, the Bison return all-leaguers Adam Lord and Tom Kuhn on the front line. Competition will be keen in the secondary this spring where all four starters to a unit that intercepted 21 passes and ranked 6th nationally in pass defense have graduated.

On the special teams front the graduation of Eiben creates a real void in the punt return game. He ranked 15th in Division I-AA with a 12.20 return average and set several school records in that department. All-Patriot League place-kicker Chris Lundberg returns after a fine season in 2000. He connected on 13-of-17 field goal attempts, including a career-long 47 yarder. Billy Windle, who split the punting duties with the graduated Matt Faircloth, returns after averaging 36.9 yards on 37 punts.

Here is a more in-depth look at the 2001 Bison entering training camp:

OFFENSE

QUARTERBACK

After patiently waiting his turn to take the starting reigns, Lucas Phillips turned in a solid season at quarterback last year. He completed 53.8% of his passes and threw for 1,777 yards--a total that ranks as the 10th-best in school history. Unfortunately, he has graduated.

"Lucas was the only one we lost on offense, but it's a big loss," stated Gadd. "He really stepped up and played well for us, carrying us in several games."

Entering spring drills junior TODD WENRICH (6-1, 208) will have command of the offense. He started the opener at Richmond last year before being replaced by Phillips, and finished the season with six completions in 24 attempts for 58 yards. Sophomore RYAN COLTON (6-0, 197), who quarterbacked the junior varsity team last season, will provide Wenrich's competition in spring practice.

SOUND BYTES FROM COACH GADD

ON LOSING FIVE GAMES LAST YEAR BY A TOTAL OF 16 POINTS: "We were close to getting where we wanted to go last year. We were either tied or ahead in the fourth quarter of each game we lost. We had the makings of a real good football team, but we just didn't make enough plays to finish it off."

ON PLAYING DIVISION I-A KENT STATE: "It's a tall order out of the box, but I think our players are excited to be playing Kent. We think our program is at a point where we can play this type of opponent, and we hope we can continue to put these types of programs on our schedule down the road."

ON THE LOSS OF EIGHT DEFENSIVE STARTERS: "That's where all of our big losses are. We lost a lot in the secondary ... not just in players, but in experience. We also lost a lot of talent at linebacker. When you go back and look at the films in the off-season, you get to view things with less emotion than there is during the season and you really start to see the contributions. The contributions made by the seniors in our secondary and linebacker positions were very, very important to the success we've had."

Senior tailback Jabu Powell

Wenrich will have additional competition in the fall from senior CHAD MEHLE (6-0, 175) and six incoming freshmen at the position. Mehle is currently studying abroad in Australia and will miss spring practice.

"We felt we needed to make this position more competitive, and that's part of the reason we are bringing in six freshmen quarterbacks," said Gadd. "We will give them a chance to show what they can do in the fall, and see if any of them step up."

RUNNING BACK

The starting backfield should once again be a major strength for the Bison this coming season, particularly behind an experienced offensive line.

Starting tailback JABU POWELL (5-8, 179) had an all-league season in 2000, rushing for 1,102 yards and 14 touchdowns. He ranked 18th in the country in rushing and 13th in the nation in all-purpose yards (160.1/g). Powell will enter his final season ranked fifth on Bucknell's all-time rushing yardage chart with 2,246 yards, and third in all-purpose yards with 3,581.

Powell's health will be the pivotal question. He missed two games last season after being diagnosed with spinal stenosis, but returned to play in the final three contests and should be near 100% this spring.

Joining Powell in the backfield will be bruising senior fullback

JASON MARROW (5-11, 215). Marrow fractured his fibula early on last year, and after just two games was done for the season. With 17 TD's in 1999 and over 500 yards rushing, Marrow is an integral part of the offensive attack, especially near the goal line.

Sophomore JESS BRINSON (6-2, 196) will serve as Powell's backup after a fine freshman season. He started one game and played in seven last year, rushing for 177 yards and a pair of scores. Senior RICCOROSINI (5-10, 185), who will miss spring ball because he's studying abroad in Italy, will also lend depth here. Rosini has been one of the team's top special teams players for the past two seasons.

The fullback spot has a load of depth, including juniors MATT KAWCZENSKI (6-0, 232) and TODD WARMINGTON (5-11, 247), and sophomore J.C. MORGAN (5-11, 226). Kawczenski moved from his backup role into the starters slot after Marrow got hurt, but in his first start suffered a season-ending knee injury. Warmington started seven games and caught eight passes out of the backfield, while Morgan made one start and had six receptions -- two of which went for touchdowns.

WIDE RECEIVER

The top two targets for a year ago both return in junior JIM HORAN (6-2, 180) and senior KYLE HARRIS (5-11, 178). Horan, who uses his size and athletic ability to go up and get the football, has led the club in receiving in each of the past two seasons with 31 (390 yds, 3 TDs) and 37 receptions (450 yds, 3 TDs), respectively. Harris caught 35 balls for 398 yards and a touchdown in his initial season with the Blue and Orange last year after transferring from Ricks Junior College.

In addition sophomores EVAN CRAWFORD (6-1, 180), TIM JOHNSON (5-8, 181) and AL MARQUARDT (6-2, 175) all contributed as freshmen last season and will lend solid depth to the position.

TIGHT END

The healthy return of senior GREG READINGER (6-4, 262) makes this one of the strongest positions for the Bison. He missed three games in the middle of the season last year with a broken hand, but still caught 10 passes for 93 yards.

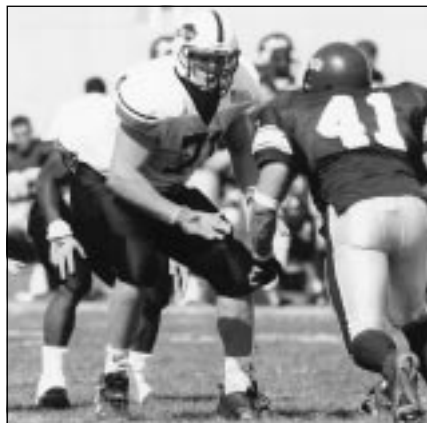

Three experienced players sit right behind him. Senior MARK WYLAND (6-1, 261), who played in nine games last year and caught 10 passes for 106 yards, will see time in the double-tight end sets and has good hands out of the backfield.

Sophomores PATRICK ALFANO (6-2, 228) and RICH GUYRE (6-2, 220) each saw starting time last year and will contribute. Junior DREW NADLER (6-4, 220) missed the entire season with a broken foot last year and, along with senior MATT ARROYO (6-1, 233), will add depth.

OFFENSIVE LINE

The offensive line should be a major strength this year for the Bison. All five starters return on the line and after a solid year of playing alongside each other should be ready to roll as a unit.

BLAISE PAGLIA (6-3, 318), who had seen time at various line spots during his first two seasons, started every game at left tackle last year. Senior JON CHURCHILL (6-1, 289), a two-year starter and three-year letterman, returns to anchor the left guard position.

The center position will be hotly contested between senior CARSON BOOK (6-2, 292) and junior BILL JAMIESON (6-4, 280).

Book started every contest in the middle last year after Jamieson, the starter in 1999, could not return from a broken leg injury.

At right guard, junior LUMAN BAUTA (6-0, 296) got the starting nod in 10 of 11 matchups. He has started 20 games for the Bison in his two-year career. Senior GARRY REYNOLDS (6-4, 305), a two-year starter, anchored the right tackle slot for all 11 games last year.

Also expected to see major time on the front wall is junior JOE SCHWEITZER (6-3, 272). Last fall, Schweitzer earned two spot starts at the guard position.

A host of young players will make the position extremely competitive this spring.

DEFENSE

DEFENSIVE LINE

The line is the strength of the defense heading into spring drills. Returning All-Patriot Leaguer ADAM LORD (6-0, 268) will anchor the middle at nose guard, and he will be flanked by All-Patriot League defensive end TOM KUHN (6-4, 250) and senior ANDDY CARMONA (6-1, 270).

Lord recorded 30 tackles and three sacks in the middle last year, while Kuhn had 28 stops - including eight behind the line. Carmona, who had a team-high nine sacks in 1999, was slowed by an ankle injury last year.

Junior GARY CARRUTHERS (6-3, 267) saw time last fall, recording 16 tackles and a pair of sacks, and will provide quality depth along with junior ERIC STORM (6-0, 265). Storm started two games at nose guard last year and had 11 tackles and two sacks.

Senior DARSEAN JOHNSON (6-4, 247) and junior PETER CHRISTATHAKIS (6-1, 247) will also battle for time on the line.

LINEBACKERS

The linebacking corps was hit hard by graduation. All-Patriot League First Team selection and tri-captain Vince Ficca led the league in tackles last year, and his leadership will be difficult to replace. Starters Eric Higgins and Chad Marsilio have also graduated, leaving three spots to fill.

Senior MARK TALLMAN (6-3, 232), a two-year starter at outside backer who had 31 tackles and four sacks last year, will be looked to as the leader of the unit.

Junior JOE MASSEY (6-1, 240), an extremely strong and quick athlete, will vie for a starting spot after two solid years in the Orange and Blue. He recorded 26 tackles and a pair of sacks as a freshman and had 36 tackles and a team-high nine sacks last season.

Seniors NICK SAJONE (6-1, 245) and STEVE GIFFORD (6-0, 212), and junior JUAN MORALES (6-2, 233) will also battle for time. Sajone saw spot duty last season and made 10 tackles. Gifford, a promising talent from Ricks Junior College, suffered a season-ending knee injury in camp and missed the entire year. Morales played in all 11 games last year and had 12 tackles, including eight behind the line of scrimmage, and a pair of sacks.

Depth should come from sophomores DANE HELSING (6-0, 210) and STEFAN PLUVIOSE

(5-11, 224), and senior BILLY WINDLE (6-2, 199).

SECONDARY

No unit on the team was hit harder by graduation than the secondary. All-American free safety Kevin Eiben, tri-captain Justin Lustig, former All-Patriot League corner Nate Musselman, Academic All-American free safety Dave Evans and corner Eric Slaughter have all moved on.

"We lost a lot in the secondary, not just in terms of numbers, but also in terms of experience," said Gadd. "The little things that kids with experience regularly do ... things that take time to coach kids to understand ... those were intangibles that last year's group had. We will need to start fresh with this young crew, but it's a talented group. They're as talented as any secondary group we've had here."

The foundation may begin with senior free safety BOBBY YOUNG (5-10, 170), the team's leading returning tackler from a year ago with 41 stops. He saw extensive action in 2000, recording seven pass breakups and three forced fumbles. Young is studying abroad in France and will miss spring practice.

Senior REED TUNISON (5-9, 160), who has battled injuries throughout his all-league career, has petitioned the Patriot League for an extra year of eligibility and if granted will anchor one of the corner spots.

The remainder of the group is as young as they come, including six sophomores among the spring two-deep. MIKE LEATHERMAN (5-10, 199) and ANTHONY LEWIS (5-7, 170), who saw extensive action on special teams as freshmen last year, could figure in at one of the safety positions and at corner, respectively.

JARED MARSILIO (5-11, 189), WILL SMITH (5-10, 206), and VIRGIL RUSH (5-11, 181) are the other sophomores that will battle for time. Senior GEORGE COWAN (6-2, 195), who has moved back and forth between the secondary and wide receiver, and junior ADAM MINGGIA (6-0, 178) will also provide depth to the unit.

SPECIAL TEAMS

The loss of Kevin Eiben will be felt along this front as well. He ranked 15th in Division I-AA with a punt return average of 12.20, and graduated as the school record holder in career punt returns (51), career punt return yardage (626) and season punt return yardage (366).

Several players will get a look in the return game this spring, including ANTHONY LEWIS who returned a team-high eight kick-offs last season.

"We spend a lot of time in this area," noted Gadd. "We lost a lot of cover guys and our main return man, but we work real hard at making our special teams strong. That's been a trademark of our team and I suspect we'll find a way to get back to that point again next fall."

Junior place-kicker CHRIS LUNDBERG (5-10, 195) returns

after an all-league season in 2000. He connected on 13-of-17 field goals, including a career-long 47-yarder, and finished second on the team in scoring with 62 points.

Senior JOE LOURDEAUX (5-11, 182) will probably continue to handle the kickoff duties and field goal attempts from extremely long range.

At punter, junior BILLY WINDLE (6-2, 199) is penciled in as the starter after sharing the duties with Matt Faircloth last year. Windle averaged a team-high 36.9 yards on 37 punts, including nine that were downed inside the opponents 20-yard line. He will be pushed by incoming freshman RYAN BERRY (5-9, 170).

Junior nose guard Adam Lord (#94)
